MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1887

THE Government of the United States, while not a paternal one, has, from its beginning, fostered public education. By the Ordinance of 1787, the proceeds from the sale of the one-thirty-sixth part of the public lands of the territory north-west of the Ohio river were set apart for educational purposes. Subsequently the one-eighth of other public lands were ordered to be sold for the benefit of the public schools. Since the adoption of the Constitution Congress has made frequent contributions for the founding and the maintenance of academies, colleges, and universities. In 1802 large grants of public lands were made to all the States and Territories for the establishment of institutions in which the science of agriculture should be taught. The Nevada State University is one of the schools which is to reap the benefits of this wise piece of national legislation. By an Act of the last Congress $15,000 was given to each of the land grant colleges in the United States for the purpose of establishing agricultural experiment stations. One of these stations will be located at Reno within the next eighteen months. The funds supplied by Congress will be sufficient to maintain a school of agriculture in the University, in which the study of grasses, grains, fruits, trees, flowers, stock, analysis of soils, processes of irrigation and farm architecture will be taught. Stimulated by the liberality of Congress, as well as by the enterprise of the people, the Regents of the Nebraska State University have let the contract for an industrial building to cost $41,000. Speed the day when Nevada shall also have an agricultural experiment station in her University.

JUDGE D. O. ADKISON is gone. His remains were brought up from San Francisco yesterday morning, his funeral taking place in Virginia City yesterday afternoon. He leaves a wife and a young lady daughter and many others to mourn his loss. For nearly a quarter of a century he has lived in Nevada and has been identified with her interests. Through nearly the whole of this time he has held some office of public trust—Justice of the Peace, member of the Assembly or Postmaster at Virginia. He has also been a prominent member of the order of Odd Fellows, occupying various positions in the order. Public spirited, capable and honest, Mr. Adkison has left to his family the wealth of a name unimpaired.

SPEAKING of the recent State Fair the Carson Appeal says that the people of Reno "will be before the next Legislature with a big relief bill, just as they did in the Asylum matter." The GAZETTE was not aware that "the people of Reno" were running either the State Fair or the State Insane Asylum. Both institutions are located here, but they are governed by regularly appointed State Boards. One to read the Appeal and other papers in Nevada would suppose that these were local institutions, run by Washoe county's Board of Commissioners.

THE Republican party has always favored a cheap postal system. To Republicans alone we are indebted for the present rates. Representative Cannon, of Illinois, is entitled to more credit than any other man, for this great blessing. He now proposes to reduce letter postage to one cent, and will press this winter his measure with the hope of success. If Congress had more such practical men, there would be far less ground for complaint.

CLEVELAND contributes $1,000 and Lamont $250 to the campaign fund in New York. With this example at the White House, the Department officials feel safe in "doing likewise," and the consequence is a good round sum goes to that State for partisan purposes. If there are any merits in the Civil Service law, it will be hard to discover them after a little more straggling.

THE President says in his Thanksgiving proclamation, that "Every path of honest toil has led to comfort and contentment," but hundreds of Union soldiers and widows who have been discharged from the Government Printing Office for no reason but to give place to confederates and partisans, discover little beauty in such a heartless sentiment.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Anarchist Situation in Chicago.

THE GOVERNOR PUZZLED.

A Dynamite Bomb Found in Lingg's Cell.

ANARCHISTS HARD AT WORK.

Serious Trouble With Negroes in Louisiana.

[PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

Looks Rather Desperate.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 7.—Governor Oglesby was thunderstruck when he received the news last night of finding bombs in Lingg's cell. He read and re-read the dispatch, and a cloud of gloom, vexation and anxiety swept over his face as the full import of the information dawned upon him. "I can't say anything," he said to an Associated Press reporter. "I must say nothing whatever with regard to this matter. There is nothing I can properly say, and any opinion I might express, even if it were right for me to express it, would only be misunderstood."

"I am surprised at your information," said Attorney General Hunt, when the news was communicated to him; "not only am I surprised, but I am heartily sorry. It puts a different phase on the matter so far as the opinion of a portion of the public is concerned, and at least shows that Lingg is as bad as he has been painted. So far as the public is concerned, the effect can only be to prejudice the minds of the masses against the condemned men. As to what effect it would have on the Governor I, of course, cannot say. It should, as a matter of fact, have no effect, but a man must be more than human if he is not affected to some degree by such information at all. The event of this circumstance is greatly to be regretted."

LATER—Sheriff Malsen this morning said: "There is no doubt as to the nature of the stuff found in Lingg's bomb; that a part of the filling had been taken out of a couple of pipes and exploded, and that it had been found to be the strongest kind of dynamite. Lingg is defiant and sullen this morning. He put on his oldest street clothes, put his feet up on a little iron cot, and began to read a paper. He was restless, and every few moments he would jerk his head around and stare through the grating door with a wicked look."

It is reported that the police have discovered dynamite bombs, which were secreted in the house of an anarchist near the gas works.

Governor Oglesby and the Anarchists.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 7.—Governor Oglesby's mail in the Anarchists case was larger this morning than ever before. Governor Oglesby this afternoon informed an Associated Press representative that while there were many demands that the sentence of death be carried out, a proportion of the requests for commutation were larger than on any previous day. "As a matter of fact," said the Governor, "the pleas for clemency always have been somewhat greater than requests for non-interference, but this morning the proportion was somewhat greater than usual. Delegations, I presume, will begin to come in to-morrow, and when they do, I propose to receive them all in the reception room at the Capitol. Everybody will be accorded a patient hearing, and the case will finally be disposed of just as all other cases of like character have been in the past."

Numerous telegrams have been received by the Governor during the day, most of them from Chicago. Their tenor cannot be learned, other than that one of them was from a prominent Chicago capitalist, who favors executive clemency. There is little doubt that the Governor is at this time receiving communications from an unusually large number of moneyed men of the country, who recommend a commutation of sentence. Some of these gentlemen waive all questions as to law and justice in the case, and simply favor clemency on the grounds of public policy, insisting that it is better to send the condemned men to prison for life than it is to have all of them become professed martyrs by suffering the death penalty. An immense pressure is brought upon him, and this will become greater day by day from this time until the date of execution.

Trouble With Negroes in Louisiana.
PATTERSONVILLE, La., Oct. 7.—Trouble has been threatening in this neighborhood for some time past. The negroes have been talking freely about burning the town of Pattersonville. It is stated that one, who is now in prison, has made a full confession of a plot to burn the town, which was to have been carried into effect Saturday night. The shooting and wounding of four white men on the Phairo plantation on Friday caused the authorities here to investigate a search for arms in the town, and at the same time to arrest several men who had made themselves most conspicuous by the loudness and ferocity of their threats.

Editor O'Brien and his Friends.
DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—O'Brien resisted the attempt to force him to put on the uniform of the Lullamore jail to-day. The prison doctor then directed the Governor to desist on account of the uncertain state of O'Brien's health. Dillon spoke at Castlereagh yesterday. He entreated his hearers to swear with him that as long as life and liberty remained they would do everything in their power "to avenge O'Brien and to make suffer the hateful class who consigned this beloved and gifted Irishman to a felon's cell."

ground early this morning. The Mortimer would have been the largest and most expensive apartment house west of New York City. The loss on the dwellings is $15,000. The loss on the Mortimer house is $100,000, with $90,000 insurance.

Crased by Jealousy.
BOULDER, Col., Oct. 7.—James Smith, a respectable citizen, suspected that too intimate relations existed between his wife and a young man named Frazier. Smith sent for Frazier to come to his house, saying that he wanted to see him on important business. Just as Frazier reached the gate Smith opened the door and fired, killing him almost instantly. He then sent a ball through his own head and died almost instantly.

Anarchists Give Warning.
MARSEILLES, Oct. 7.—At a violent meeting of Anarchists here to-day a resolution was adopted to warn American agents in France of vengeance in the event of the execution of the condemned Chicago Anarchists. A copy of the resolution was conveyed by a deputation to the American Consulate. The Consul was absent, and the deputation retired quietly.

Received with Open Arms.
LONDON, Nov. 7.—Sullivan, the American pugilist, was met by friends in a special tug on his arrival at Liverpool. On landing an enthusiastic crowd tried to unharness four horses of a carriage waiting for him. A reception was given at the Grand Hotel, which was attended by many fighters, among them being Greenfield Swann.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Wm. F. Patton, Bar Keeper in the City Hotel, Shoots and Kills Sing, a Murderous Chinese Cook—Patton Exonerated.

A fatal shooting affray occurred yesterday morning at half-past 7 o'clock at the City Hotel on Virginia street, north of the railroad track, the victim being Sing, a Chinese cook. It appears that Wm. Patton, bar keeper in the hotel, heard Sing call his wife, who is a waitress, a liar. He went into the kitchen and told the Chinaman that he never wanted to hear him call his wife such a name again. Sing talked back very impudently and Patton told him to shut up and cook the meat that was on the stove. Just then the Chinaman leaned over a pile of wood for the purpose, it was supposed, of pulling out a stick for the stove. Instead of pulling out a stick he pulled a revolver from behind a sack of flour that was leaning against the wood-pile. As he was about to level it at Patton the latter instantly drew his revolver and fired it, the bullet striking the Chinaman in the left groin. The Chinaman fell and then drew his revolver again on Patton, whereupon Patton fired the second time, the ball striking the victim in the right shoulder.

The only witness present during the shooting was C. P. Cross, who lives in the rear of the hotel. Patton said to him: "I believe I have killed the Chinaman; what shall I do?" Cross advised him to give himself up to the authorities at once, which he did. The Chinaman died last night at about 8 o'clock. A large dirk knife was found under the pillow.

A coroner's inquest is being held this afternoon on the remains of the Chinaman. Dr. Dawson, who made a post mortem examination, was the first witness, and was on the stand at 2 o'clock.

Verdict of Coroner's Jury 3:45 P.M.

We, the undersigned jurors, sworn to appear before H. P. Brown, Coroner in and for Washoe county, State of Nevada, on the 7th day of November, 1887, to inquire into the cause of the killing of one Sing, a Chinaman, having been duly sworn and having, after inspection of the body, made inquest, do all say that we find that the deceased was named Sing, aged about 40 years, and that he came to his death from a pistol shot wound caused by the firing of a pistol shot from a pistol in the hands of one W. F. Patton; and we, the jurors, do find, according to the evidence adduced before us, that the said W. F. Patton committed the act in self-defense, and we hereby exonerate him from all blame.

W. T. O'HARRA, L. ABRAHAM, S. BEEMER, M. C. BRISTOL, C. W. FOSTER, JAMES BLACK.

Patten will get a hearing before Justice Young to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

A Clever Pickpocket.

N. Roos, of New York City, a brother of A. Roos, for many years a prominent clothing merchant of Virginia City, had his pocket picked in a very clever way while walking leisurely along Commercial Row last Friday morning. Mr. Roos had just arrived here from the East and contemplated going to Virginia City after spending a day or two in Reno. He carried a wallet containing about $150 in bank notes, a round-trip ticket from New York to Los Angeles and Portland, Oregon, and return, and other papers of value, in the inside pocket of his coat. While walking along Commercial Row, as stated, an individual with his arms folded and, to all appearances, very drunk, staggered up against him, and then apologized in a drunken style and passed on. A few moments later Mr. Roos discovered that his wallet was gone. Without telling any one of the matter until several hours afterward, he searched the town for the individual, but could not find him. The matter was not reported to the police authorities.

At Peace.

A stomach in revolt is an obdurate rebel. Corroded with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, its dissensions with the food introduced into it in unwary moments of appetite cease. Then it is peace. Gent's furnishing goods of the finest quality are always kept on hand.

An Indignant Citizen.

A well-known citizen of the western part of town killed a fat rooster after dark Saturday evening and looked forward to an unusually good chicken dinner yesterday. After cutting the bird's head off he entered the kitchen of his home, where he remained for probably three minutes, and then returned to get the fowl. Imagine his surprise and anger when he found it gone. He offers to put up the price of a stomach pump and for the services of a doctor to manipulate it, for the individual who stole and devoured the fowl. What's more, he will agree to hold the individual while the pump is being applied.

Cinderella.

One of the many features of the Juvenile Opera Company, which appears in Reno on the 14th, 15th and 16th, is the performance of little Hettie Walte. This young Miss possesses a rare talent for one of so few years, and in the character of Cinderella appeals to the hearts of her audience.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

The pleasant weather continues, with few signs of a storm.

Job printing in all its branches executed at the GAZETTE office.

Many inquiries from would-be purchasers are heard concerning good residence lots in town.

The attendance at the funeral of the late D. O. Adkinson yesterday in Virginia City was large. Several Renosites were present.

Patrick O'Malley, an old-time miner of White Pine county, was found dead in his cabin in Taylor last Monday morning.

A class is being formed in Austin to teach the citizens to remember their debts. The local paper is in ecstasies over the movement.

In the report of pupils in Mt. St. Mary's Academy, published Saturday in the GAZETTE, the name of Miss Maggie Wilkinson was omitted by mistake.

At Genoa, Douglas county, on Wednesday, Joseph Schieck had one eye put out by a nail which he was driving bounding backward and striking that organ.

The average assay value of all the Con. California and Virginia ore worked at the Morgan and Eureka mills during last week according to battery samples, was $28.90.

A venire has been issued by Judge Bigelow for 20 jurors, returnable November 10th, at which time the case of John Fayhee vs. Stephen Pedrol and others will be tried, a suit for $5,000 damages.

Eureka Sentinel: During the week Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped six bars of Eureka Con. bullion, valued at $14,759; eight bars of Richmond, valued at $15,346.54, and two bars of passing bullion, valued at $500.

Virginia City, it is believed, is about to be invaded by dance house and variety sirens. A person negotiating for a lease of Cooper's Hall, on North O street, for a go-as-you-please variety theater, and of the lower floor of the Fredrick House, fronting on D street, for a beer jerker and dance-house dive combined, is said to be an agent of Ned Buckley, of San Francisco.

SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA.

The State of Nevada ex rel Jacob Springer, Relator, v.

C. S. Freble, Surveyor-General and ex officio Land Register, Respondent.

[By HAWLEY, J., on rehearing.]

Respondent, in his petition for a rehearing, claims—for the first time—that when relator's application to purchase was made and affidavit of preferred right filed, a party was entitled to a preferred right to only 320 acres of State lands. His claim is based upon the theory that under the provisions of section 3 of the Act fixing the price and "defining the amount of land allowed to each applicant," (stat. 1881, 115) the first applicant is the only party entitled to purchase 640 acres of land. Section 3 reads as follows:

"All agricultural and grazing lands except under the two million acre grant of June sixteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty, may be sold in tracts equal to one section to each applicant, notwithstanding such applicant may have heretofore purchased three hundred and twenty acres of the State."

A rehearing was granted for the purpose of considering the question whether the statute applies to applicants claiming a preferred right as well as to first applicants.

It is conceded that the lands in question are of the character designated in section 3. In determining the question as to the various statutes relating to the sale and purchase of State lands must be considered the Act of 1873, in direct conflict with the Act of 1881, in direct conflict
